Up to and including the Atlantlc-Protection Wednesday night, the Community Softball League endured two upsets out of three games. Monday the Americans ran true to form and obtained a complete surrender from Flower Hill nine by taking a field day event 25-2. On Tuesday the Local behind the five-hit pitching of Al Marino, finally, downed the Pirates in an extra inning game 5—3. And on Wednesday night, after trailing 11-2 going in to the last of the fourth. the Atlantic team rallied to final" ly nose out the Protections 13-12.

The Americans set a new hit and run record for a single game against the Flower Hill team Monday when their 25 runs topped the record of 22 held by the Aces and their 22 hits bettered the mark of 19 set jointly by the Aces and the Yankees.

Tuesday night Al Marino, the Local pitcher, set a pitching record by retiring three men consecutively on strikeouts with 11 pitches which beat Strap Smith's record of the night before. Strap also retired three batters that sung all the way but five men. faced him in the inning.

And the Atlantic—Protection game—the only record that can be figured out is that the Atlantic overcame a nine-run lead to come through and win.
