

HOWARD GOULD AS SANTA CLAUS

He and Mrs. Gould Will Give Port Washington Children a Merry Christmas.

Port Washington, L. I., December 14—Mrs. Howard Gould, who gave a Christmas tree and entertainment to the little folks of this village last year, will play Santa Claus again next Christmas afternoon, having engaged Liberty Hall for the occasion.

Mrs. Gould has interviewed School Principals Jones and Cunningham, also Warren S.
Weeks and George Fleet, superintendents of the Methodist Episcopal and Baptist Sunday schools respectively, securing from them the names of all children between the ages of 5 and 10 years, who will receive invitations to the Christmas tree party.

There will be all kinds of presents for the little ones—dolls, wagons, drums, skates, toy houses, bags of candy, oranges and apples.
There will also be an entertainment to amuse the little folks, including a real live Santa Claus, and the children will be indebted to Mrs. Gould for a very merry Christmas.
